

Bird List on your Tanzania Birding Safari

Below is a list of Bird Species that you can find in Tanzania . There are many sub species of the below species as well, so this is not a comprehensive list of birds that you can spot while on a birding safari in Tanzania.

- African and New World parrots
- African barbets
- African broadbills
- African warblers
- Albatrosses
- Aningas
- Barn-owls
- Bee-eaters
- Boobies and gannets
- Bulbuls
- Bush warblers and allies
- Bushshrikes and allies
- Bustards
- Buttonquails
- Cisticolas and allies
- Cormorants and shags
- Crab-plover
- Cranes
- Crows, jays, and magpies
- Cuckoos
- Cuckooshrikes
- Dapple-throat and allies
- Drongos
- Ducks, geese, and waterfowl
- Fairy flycatchers
- Falcons and caracaras
- Finches, euphonias, and allies
- Finfoots
- Flamingos
- Flufftails

- Frigatebirds
- Grassbirds and allies
- Grebes
- Ground babblers and allies
- Ground-hornbills
- Guineafowl
- Gulls, terns, and skimmers
- Hamerkop
- Hawks, eagles, and kites
- Herons, egrets, and bitterns
- Honeyguides
- Hoopoes
- Hornbills
- Hylionas
- Ibises and spoonbills
- Indigobirds
- Jacanas
- Kingfishers
- Larks
- Laughingthrushes and allies
- Leaf warblers
- Monarch flycatchers
- Mousebirds
- Nicators
- Nightjars and allies
- Old World buntings
- Old World flycatchers
- Old World orioles
- Old World parrots
- Old World sparrows
- Osprey
- Ostriches,
- Owls
- Oxpeckers
- Oystercatchers
- Painted-snipes
- Pelicans
- Penduline-tits
- Pheasants, grouse, and allies
- Pigeons and doves
- Pittas
- Plovers and lapwings
- Pratincoles and coursers
- Rails, gallinules, and coots
- Reed warblers and allies
- Rollers
- Sandgrouse

- Sandpipers and allies
- Secretarybird
- Shearwaters and petrels
- Shoebill
- Shrikes
- Skuas and jaegers
- Starlings
- Stilts and avocets
- Storks
- Sunbirds and spiderhunters
- Swallows
- Swifts
- Sylviid warblers, parrotbills, and allies
- Thick-knees
- Thrushes and allies
- Tits, chickadees, and titmice
- Treecreepers
- Trogons
- Tropicbirds
- Turacos
- Vangas, helmetshrikes, and allies
- Wagtails and pipits
- Wattle-eyes and batises
- Waxbills and allies
- Weavers and allies
- White-eyes, yuhinas, and allies
- Woodpeckers